On Saturday, June 24, New York City's LBT community celebrates Pride by the South Street Seaport when Henrietta Hudson + Girl Pride NYC brings Siren to the Watermark. A portion of proceeds will go to Planned Parenthood.

"Now more than ever, sanctuary spaces driven by women are necessary in fostering acceptance, love and empowerment within our community," said organizer Lisa Cannistraci, owner of Henrietta Hudson Bar & Girl. "These outlets provide a magical place to dance, to heal, to organize, to kiss, to love, to simply exist without judgment or fear."

Siren is an annual event that has attracted more than 1,500 people in recent years and was voted Best Pride Party 2016 by GO Magazine. Organizers tout it as "The party you have been waiting for all year!"

Join the fun at their spectacular open air venue Watermark with sweeping vistas of three bridges overlooking the river at Watermark @ South St. & John St in the South Street Seaport!

The event will be co-hosted by Anna Hauptmann, Out With the Gay Girls, and Crazy Maria Cherry Lips. Join international DJ's Whitney Day and Citizen Jane with your favorite New York DJ's Amber Valentine & RosyQ! Their go-go dancers come Top Shelf courtesy of Maria Kent & Blackhaus Creative. The event is sponsored by Dapper Q and Curve Magazine.

This year, organizers are having a contest to see who brings in the most guests to this event. Please choose your favorite DJ or host at checkout, as the winner receives a $1,000 prize!
