TIME OUT SAYS ★★★★★★

On the far west end of Houston Street, catty-corner from the MacDougal handball courts, sits this tiny, cash-only Neapolitan pizza kitchen. With only a counter and a few tables, plus a few more out front, this bustling hole in the wall seems like a

“ SONG E NAPULE SAYS

Song E Napule is a new traditional Italian family run restaurant in Greenwich Village that uses only the freshest ingredients from local farmers' markets or imported directly from Italy, including fresh pasta shipped in from Napoli Gragnano. The owners, Ciro & his wife Austria, make everyone feel at home and take the time to prepare the most delicious, brick-oven pizzas, (22 to choose from) pastas, salads & homemade bread. The pizza dough is made to perfection, carefully resting for over 72 hours, which provides a light and delicious crust. Enjoy the open air restaurant Mon-Sun for dinner and Thurs.-Sun for lunch. Outdoor seating available. Happy Hour everyday from 4-7 with Prosecco, Rosé, House Red or White Wine and Beer for just $6.
